Dear Millie

I believe another blunder has been perpetrated upon your trunk! Gus' says he checked it to San-Francisco. I thought I told him the first box went to City & the trunk to Oakland. I presume the best way to do, is to give your check to the Berkeley expressman, & let him deliver it to you. If you should go yourself after it, you know you could not get it checked to Oakland. So I think the best way wd be as I suggest. I admit that I was not Careful enough about it & am sorry - & so I remain your loving Pa.

Dear Millie

I suppose the fact that this is a masculine and not a feminine blunder will go far towards consoling you under the annoyance. I trust it will not prove serious.
